

Consolidation of media ownership is extremely harmful to the exchange of ideas and to democracy. Please do not change the current rules to make this lamentable trend even stronger. On the contrary please further restrict the ability of owners to purchase multiple stations in the same area. There is a great range of ideas and a small number of channels. Please let each channel represent a different point of view.